President William Farrell recognized members of the College community at the third annual Campus Compact for New Hampshire Presidents Awards ceremony in May. Dr. Sue Cooke, Assistant Professor of Biology, received the Good Steward Award. Dr. Cooke developed a new embedded service learning course and has worked closely with the Biology Club in their fundraising efforts. She also promotes science careers for young women in a variety of ways. 21st Century Community Learning Centers of Nashua was recognized with the Community Partner Award, while Habitat for Humanity earned the Leadership Award for an Outstanding Student Organization for their advocacy for people struggling with homelessness and their extensive community outreach efforts in Nashua and beyond. Approximately 22 colleges participated in this annual celebration. ■

* JENNIFER LISKOW works as a Public Relations and Web Writer in the Office of Marketing and Communications and teaches in Rivier's Professional Communications program. Jenn earned her bachelor's in English and communications from Notre Dame College in Manchester, N.H. in 1996. In 2002, she completed her master's in writing and literature at Rivier. She began writing in junior high school; since then, she has had poems, short stories, features, and essays published. In her free time, Jenn enjoys practicing yoga, ten-pin bowling, and listening to live music with her husband, Tim.
