

DANGER ZONE

Vladimir V. Riabov*

Danger Zone. Tangiers, Morocco. Color Photograph.

“Several years ago, I visited Morocco as a tourist. On the ruins of the ancient fortress in Tangiers, I saw a Moroccan, who was gazing at the Spanish coast vaguely seen across the Mediterranean Sea. The sign on the fortress wall warned us, ‘Danger’ ... The terrorists would explode bombs on the train in Madrid the following year.” – Vladimir Riabov

* Dr. VLADIMIR V. RIABOV, Associate Professor of Computer Science at Rivier College, teaches Computing Concepts & Tools, Networking Technologies, Software Engineering, Object-Oriented System Design, and System Simulation and Modeling. He received a Ph.D. in Applied Mathematics and Physics from Moscow Institute of Physics and Technology and M.S. in Computer Information Systems from Southern New Hampshire University. His hobby is digital photography. Some of Vladimir’s photos have been published in The Bedford Bulletin and The Goffstown News. He has also participated in the SNHU Community Art Shows and New Hampshire Art Association Photo Exhibitions.