The Greater Nashua Chamber of Commerce named Rivier Trustee John P. Stabile the 2007 Business Person-of-the-Year at the Chamber's fourth annual Eminence Awards. Stabile is the Chairman of the Board for the Stabile Companies, which he founded more than 30 years ago. The real estate holding company is involved in commercial and residential construction, as well as real estate management and holdings. Stabile is also owner of the Nashua Pride baseball team. Through his efforts to rebuild the team and his numerous development projects, Stabile has a powerful impact on the community.

Barb Tremlett'02G received the 2007 Outstanding Chamber Volunteer Award. The CEO and Executive Director of the Holistic Health Care Center in Nashua has volunteered with the Chamber for the last 15 years. She currently mentors new members, assists with the small business expo committee, and serves on the ambassador committee, the program committee, and the steering committee for the restructuring of the Greater Nashua Leadership Program.

Adjunct professor of business Dr. Ron Kraus was honored with the Chamber's 2007 President's Award. Kraus has taught courses in management and organizational behavior for Rivier for more than 20 years. He is the owner of Bausch Articulating Papers, Inc. and a long-time member of the Chamber. He created the Chamber's Leadership Program in 1992, and is currently chair of the Chamber's newly created Local Advocacy Task Force. ■

* JENNIFER LISKOW works as a Public Relations and Web Writer in the Office of Marketing and Communications and teaches in Rivier's Professional Communications program. Jenn earned her bachelor's in English and communications from Notre Dame College in Manchester, N.H. in 1996. In 2002, she completed her master's in writing and literature at Rivier. She began writing in junior high school; since then, she has had poems, short stories, features, and essays published. In her free time, Jenn enjoys practicing yoga, ten-pin bowling, and listening to live music with her husband, Tim.
