

RIVIER WELCOMES NEW TRUSTEES

(From: Rivier Today, Summer 2008)

Samuel A. Tamposi Jr. is president of The Tamposi Company, a family real estate development firm with major real estate interests in New Hampshire and Florida. He is responsible for the firm's New Hampshire real estate holdings—more than 1.6 million square feet of commercial and industrial buildings and over 1,000 acres of land for development or investment.

Tamposi also oversees his family's partnership interests in the Boston Red Sox and serves as a director of the Red Sox Foundation. He is president of the Tamposi Foundation, which makes annual donations to local charities. He has served on the boards of numerous organizations, including the Nashua Boys Club, Nashua's Performing Arts Committee, Nashua's Arts and Science Center, the YMCA, the Nashua Trust Company, and the Greater Nashua Chamber of Commerce. He holds a bachelor of arts from Dartmouth College.

Michael S. Rose currently serves as Senior Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer at Southern New Hampshire Health System, where he is responsible for overall strategic financial planning and management for Southern New Hampshire Medical Center and Foundation Medical Partners.

Rose was previously Vice President of Finance and Operations at Cooper University Hospital in Camden, N.J. and Senior Vice President and CFO for the Cooper University Physicians. A graduate of Longwood University in Farmville, Va. with a bachelor's in business administration, Rose earned an M.B.A. from Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, Va. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Healthcare Financial Management Association.

Dr. Richard Foemmel is a director of DecImmune Therapeutics, Inc., a Boston, Mass. early-stage drug discovery company. He served as President and CEO from 2003 to 2006. Prior to joining DecImmune, he founded CytoLogix Corporation, a medical products company, and spent 12 years as a vice president at Dianon Systems in Stratford, Conn. He currently serves as vice president of the Nashua Symphony Association. Foemmel holds a bachelor's from Cornell College, a Ph.D. in biological chemistry from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor and an M.B.A. from New York University's Stern School of Business.
