An Evening of Favorite Poems

From
The Trouble with Poetry
by Billy Collins
...
The trouble with poetry is that it encourages the writing of more poetry, more guppies crowding the fish tank, more baby rabbits
hopping out of their mothers into the dewy grass.
But mostly poetry fills me with the urge to write poetry, to sit in the dark and wait for a little flame to appear at the tip of my pencil.

And along with that, the longing to steal, to break into the poems of others with a flashlight and a ski mask.
