Rivier faculty and alumni are showcasing some of their art as part of an exhibition currently on display at the College.

Generations, an exhibition featuring the works of Rivier art faculty, is showing at the Rivier College Art Gallery until Oct. 21, 2011. Rivier art faculty members each invited an alumnus or alumna to appear with them. This collaboration not only highlights current directions and explorations by those who teach in Rivier's studios, but it also provides insight into the continued artistic journeys of a selection of those who have studied under their tutelage. After closing in the gallery itself, the exhibition will be available online at the Rivier College Art Gallery's website at www.rivier.edu/artgallery for the remainder of the 2011-12 academic year.

"We wanted to host this exhibition as a way to further our relationship with our alumni, and also promote the work of the Rivier College Art Gallery to our many constituencies, including faculty, students, alumni, and the public," said Rivier College Art Gallery Director Sister Theresa Couture, p.m.

The Rivier College Art Gallery showcases artwork by nationally and internationally acclaimed artists, as well as works from the collections of distinguished art museums and galleries. Faculty exhibitions are held on occasion. At the close of each academic year, the gallery showcases the work of graduating students. The gallery is located on the second floor of Memorial Hall and is open on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., on Tuesdays from 10 a.m.-8:30 p.m., and on Fridays from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. ■
