

LOCAL LEADERS JOIN BOARD OF TRUSTEES

(From Rivier Today, Fall 2018)

Three new members have been appointed to Rivier's Board of Trustees, strengthening the Board's expertise in education, healthcare, business management, and philanthropy. In addition to their professional roles, they support a range of non-profit, community organizations.

"The guidance and support of Board members are integral to the success of our Vision 2020 plans," says Sister Paula Marie Buley, IHM, Rivier's President. "We are honored to welcome Sharon Tamposi, Dr. Jahmal Mosley, and Ted Dudley to the Board of Trustees and appreciate their willingness to employ their talents toward building Rivier's future."

Sharon McOsker Tamposi '91/'95G, MBA is deeply involved in the southern New Hampshire community. A champion for those in need, she has served as a Board member for some of the most distinguished non-profit organizations in Nashua—Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Nashua, the YMCA, St. Joseph Hospital—lending valuable business expertise to raising awareness and funds to further their good work. An ardent supporter of the University, Mrs. Tamposi received the Sister Madeleine of Jesus Award in 2013 and her generosity and foresight funded the renovation of the former Sunken Garden behind Madeleine Hall, which was renamed the Sharon McOsker Tamposi Alumni Legacy Garden in 2015.

Dr. Jahmal Mosley is the Superintendent of Schools for the Nashua School District. As an advocate for student success, he has served in public education for 19 years as both a Special Education teacher and former Assistant Superintendent of Schools for Curriculum and Instruction for the Sharon School District in Massachusetts. Dr. Mosley earned a doctorate in educational administration, policy, and research from the University of Massachusetts and a master's degree in education in special education, elementary, and middle school education from Wheelock College.

Edward (Ted) Dudley III '00G, MBA has over 30 years of healthcare management experience in governmental, for-profit and nonprofit healthcare organizations. Currently, he is the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Catholic Medical Center (CMC) and Granite One Health System. Prior to joining CMC, he served as Vice President and CFO at Lawrence General Hospital and as Vice President of Finance at Southern New Hampshire Medical Center. Mr. Dudley is a Fellow in the Health Care Finance Management Association; he serves on the Health Care Committee at Catholic Charities New Hampshire, and the Boards at Bedford Ambulatory Surgical Center and at St. Peter's Home, the largest single-site daycare in New Hampshire. ■
