PROTECT, SERVE, AND INSPIRE POSITIVE CHANGE

Dr. Michael McCutcheon, Class of 2018, is a Patrol Sergeant with the Londonderry, NH Police Department and Owner of Forensic Education, LLC. His company offers hands-on police training to law enforcement professionals to help officers feel the excitement and gratification he felt when solving a high-profile case. He prides himself on his ability to reach out to young people and help change the negative perception some may have about police.

“I received numerous awards for cases I solved or calls I responded to, but my biggest accomplishment is changing the perception of the police in the eyes of the community.”
