

RIVIER EARNS NEW COLLEGES OF DISTINCTION AWARD

(From Rivier Today, Fall 2019)

As an institution whose primary goals are based on student success, Rivier University has been honored as one of the renowned Colleges of Distinction for the ninth consecutive year. Earning national recognition for the integrity of its individualized and engaging education, Rivier has also received program-specific recognition in Business, Nursing, and Education.

“Rivier University walks the walk,” said Tyson Schritter, Chief Operating Officer for Colleges of Distinction. “Colleges of Distinction knows that a truly valuable education can’t be measured by rank or reputation. Students learn and thrive best when they embrace hands-on learning in a vibrant, welcoming community. That’s why it’s so encouraging to find Rivier University take such an innovative approach with its curriculum: its High-Impact Educational Practices ensure that the undergraduate experience is worthwhile and unique.”

For the 2019-2020 academic year, Rivier also received the Colleges of Distinction Career Development Award acknowledging the depth and breadth of its student career development experiences. This award is reserved for institutions that provide students with unparalleled support throughout every stage of career exploration, development, and application. Rivier is the only New Hampshire college or university to receive this distinction. ■
