

HONORING EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION: TAMARA MARCAURELLE '17G

(From Rivier Today, Fall 2019)

Tamara Marcaurelle '17G (pictured above left) was honored with a Nashua Education Foundation (NEFie) Award this fall. NEFie Awards recognize outstanding educators in the Nashua School District.

Tamara, an educator at the Elm Street Middle School, was recognized as the Special Education Teacher of the Year.

The Nashua Education Foundation's mission is to enhance education opportunities for Nashua public school students. The Foundation offers grants to educators to support innovative educational initiatives. According to Nashua Education Foundation Board President Beth Kreick (pictured above right), the non-profit has provided more than $100,000 to 75 enrichment projects in the past decade.

Championing the efforts of Education alumni in the Nashua community, Rivier University is a proud supporter of the Foundation. ■
