New Hampshire State Senator Lou D'Allesandro shared thoughts from his new biography Lion of the New Hampshire Senate and Thoughts for Presidential Hopefuls, written by Mark C. Bondanza, at a spring reception in the Regina Library.

Senator D'Allesandro is an icon in New Hampshire politics. He has served in the Senate for 22 years, in the House of Representatives for 4 years, as well as spending 6 years as a member of the Executive Council, and 10 years on his local School Board.

He credits his success to years of hard work, the loyal support of family and friends, and the cultivation of many relationships built on trust and service. "So many people have helped me along the way," said Senator D'Allesandro. "Nobody does this by himself."

The Senator continues to be a strong and familiar voice for the people of New Hampshire, ever ready with a warm handshake and an offer of help. ■
