

A SPECIAL EXHIBIT: “SPOTS OF LIGHT: TO BE A WOMAN IN THE HOLOCAUST” (APRIL 2019)

Samantha E. Cabral
Assistant Director, Regina Library

Everyone is invited, and encouraged, to visit the Regina Library and experience a special exhibit, Spots of Light: To be a Woman in the Holocaust on display through the end of April 2019.

On display through April at Regina Library

2 Clement St., Nashua, NH 03060
In partnership with the Rivier
Women's Studies Committee

In partnership with the Rivier Women's Studies Committee, Yad Vashem's poster exhibit showcasing human stories of hope, loss, genocide, and survival from the unique perspectives of Jewish women who survived the Holocaust is now available to view on the second floor of the library. Enter the exhibit near the elevator or from the open study area near the eClassroom. ■