FACULTY SPEAKER SERIES

Presented by Regina Library
Sponsored by the Rivier University Alumni Association

Michelle Beck

Learn about Rivier professor Dr. Michelle Beck's research on:
The Effects of Urbanization on the Behavior and Physiology of Song Sparrows

Thursday, Feb. 13
12:15 p.m.

Regina Library
Upstairs event space

Urban habitats expose organisms to a variety of conditions that individuals living in natural habitats do not encounter, which can lead to differences in their physiology, behavior and fitness. Dr. Beck will discuss the effects of urbanization on signaling in song sparrows as well as work conducted in collaboration with student researchers at Rivier.

Please feel free to bring along your lunch.
Light refreshments will be provided.
