

2022 SISTER MADELEINE OF JESUS AWARD RECIPIENTS

(From Rivier Today, Fall 2022)

The prestigious Sister Madeleine of Jesus Award was presented to Linda Trafton Fraser '72/'88G and Catherine Eames '81. This award is bestowed on Rivier alumni who have distinguished themselves, in the spirit of the University's mission, through outstanding service and contributions to their communities, their professions, and their alma mater.

A Class Representative and a member of the Alumni Council, Linda Trafton Fraser, Class of 1972/1988G, was recognized for her faith, leadership, and service. Following successful careers in education and business, she currently serves as an interfaith minister, hospice chaplain, and end-of-life doula bringing comfort and compassion in times of need.

A kindred spirit to Sister Madeleine of Jesus, Catherine Eames, Class of 1981, devotes her time and philanthropy to organizations that make a difference in people's lives. Driven by her experience that a Rivier education transforms lives, she has elevated the student experience through her vision and philanthropy. A distinguished business and community leader, she serves on the Rivier President's Circle Council advancing connections between the University and Greater Nashua businesses and organizations. ■
