Through April 15, 2011, the Rivier College Art Gallery will display “Ambiguities and Lucidities: recent work by Ronnie McClure and Sheli Petersen.” Rivier’s faculty members in art are accomplished practitioners who by choice combine a teaching appointment with an active studio life. This exhibition features two-dimensional work in a variety of media by faculty in design/ illustration and photography/ digital media.

Ronnie McClure’s most recent exhibition recognition is the Third Place Award in the 2011 Biennial Regional Juror’s Choice Competition at the Thorne-Sagendorph Art Gallery at Keene State College, Keene, NH. He holds a B.F.A. from San Francisco Art Institute and an M.F.A. from Rhode Island School of Design.

Sheli Petersen is the 2011 recipient of the Currier Award (best-in-show) in the New Hampshire Art Association 62nd Currier Exhibition at the Currier Museum of Art, Manchester, NH. She holds a B.F.A. from Missouri State University and an M.F.A. from Savannah College of Art & Design.
