Tina-Marie Legere and K. Brian McLaughlin, both skilled business professionals and active members of their local communities, have been appointed to the Rivier College Board of Trustees.

Currently Chief Executive Officer of Parkland Medical Center in Derry, N.H., Legere has more than 20 years experience in the health care industry, serving in a variety of administrative and executive positions. Prior to her service at Parkland Medical Center, she served in a number of vice-presidential posts at Catholic Medical Center in Manchester, N.H. She began her career in the social work setting, overseeing services for a number of local health care providers. Legere has also served on the boards of a number of civic and health care organizations. A Rivier alumna, she received an M.B.A. from the College in 1996 and a certificate in Healthcare Administration in 1998. Legere also holds a master's degree in social work administration from the University of Connecticut and a B.S. in Social Work with a minor in health and psychology from Bridgewater State College.

McLaughlin is the President and CEO of Granite Group Benefits, LLC, the company he founded in 1992. He has been an insurance professional for more than two decades. McLaughlin is licensed as a property, casualty, and employee benefits broker and serves on advisory boards for a number of insurance providers. McLaughlin is also dedicated to his local community, having been a leader in many organizations including the Goffstown Rotary Club, the Greater Manchester Red Cross, and the New Hampshire Better Business Bureau. McLaughlin served seven years in the New Hampshire Army National Guard. He received a bachelor's degree in economics and finance from Southern New Hampshire University.■
