

THE 2013 FACULTY DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

(Rivier's News Report, April 16, 2013)

Sr. Therese Larochelle, pm, Ph.D.
Vice President for Academic Affairs, Rivier University

Rivier University announces the recipients of the 2013 Faculty Development grants:

Scholarship Grants:

Marcy Ainslie—"A comparative analysis of a traditional semester and an accelerated summer semester for NSG 512 and NSG 513 seminar and practicum"

Gagan "Mia" Khera—"Substance use among Asian Indians living in the United States"

Greg Kivenzor—"Consumer behavioral trends in transitional economies: Problem of choice in BRICS"

Mark Meehan—"Hope for the future: Arab-Muslim university students' vision of democracy"

Susan Murphy—"Faculty research and assessing and developing a research intensive environment"

Jerry Rekart—"Media multitasking and cognition: A meta-analysis"

Teaching Square Grants:

Ann Ackerman—"Infusing technology and multiple format engagement for education courses"

Denise Baxter—"High tech, high touch: Innovative teaching of technology in nursing education"

Congratulations to these faculty members!