

NEW DEAN OF ARTS AND SCIENCES JOINS THE RIVIER COMMUNITY

(From Rivier Today, Fall 2015)

Rivier University has appointed Dr. Susan Langlois as its new Dean of the Division of Arts and Sciences. Dr. Langlois brings more than 20 years of administrative experience in academic leadership, curricular innovation, experiential learning, and student academic services to the University.

Prior to joining Rivier, Dr. Langlois served as the Dean of Academic Affairs and Student Services at Marian Court College where she acted as the chief academic officer and primary author on the institution's NEASC accreditation self-study, and instituted online peer-tutoring programs and a comprehensive evaluation instrument for student learning outcomes. Her distinguished career also includes key administrative and faculty appointments at Springfield College, Endicott College, and Elms College.

Dr. Langlois holds a Doctor of Physical Education (D.P.E.) and M.S. in Teaching and Administration from Springfield College, and a B.S. in Physical Education from the University of New Hampshire. ■
