Dr. Mario Andrade and Dr. Tara Levesque-Vogel have been named to the University’s Board of Trustees. Their expertise enhances the University’s strategic vision, providing the Board with experience in additional disciplines.

Dr. Andrade is the Superintendent of Schools for the Nashua School District. He began his 25-year career in public education as a special education instructor before his selection as principal at Central Falls (Rhode Island) High School in 2007. A New England School Superintendent Association board member, he also serves on the Greater Nashua United Way and Nashua Community College Advisory Boards.

Dr. Levesque-Vogel is the owner of Levesque Dentistry in Nashua, a family and cosmetic dentistry practice. A member of the American Dental Association, New Hampshire Dental Society, International College of Dentists, American College of Dentists, and the American Society of Implant & Reconstructive Dentistry, Dr. Levesque-Vogel was appointed by Governor John Lynch to the New Hampshire Board of Dental Examiners in July 2012 and served as its President from 2018-2020.

“Dr. Andrade and Dr. Levesque-Vogel will join members of our Board of Trustees in recognizing the integrative nature of the student experience and capturing opportunities for continued growth in service, academic distinction, and resources as the University executes the Go Boldly 2024-2030 strategic plan,” says Sister Paula Marie Buley, IHM, President. ■
